Find $95,000 is owed fund

The board of supervisors is hoping to cough up almost $95,000 when it meets Monday to repair damage to the beach road damaged two and a half years ago by Hurricane Botay. The State Highway Department and Bureau of Public Roads are ready to advance for bids as soon as the county's money is complete. A full report on county finances from Warren Carver, county auditor, and Vora Broland, deputy chancery clerk, was requested by Russell J. Elliott, president of the board, at last Thursday's meeting when several fund shortages and overruns were disclosed.

Another check by Carver of the road protection bond fund, from which the county expects to put up its $262,25 share of the beach road project, disclosed its $1,110,472.47 balance was $184,472.47.

Borrowed from it since the fiscal year started Oct. 1 was a total of $95,390.96. That includes $18,800 for the Beat 4 road relocation fund which has been reimbursed by the Army Corps of Engineers. The seawall fund owes it the most, $24,200.96 borrowed Oct. 27, 1967, on Nov. 8 and $30,000 on Dec. 29. Other loans were $2,000 to the health and sick fund Oct. 17, $8,360 to mosquito control Oct. 30, and $5,000 to Beat 3 road and bridge Dec. 8.

If all loans were repaid, the road bond fund would have $279,853.43. Since bond service charges run about $37,000 a year, supervisors would have to tap some other source anyway to come up with the $262,25 for the beach job.

On Beat 2 Supervisor Dolph Kellar's motion, the clerk was directed to put back into the road protection bond fund all monies owed it as it becomes available. Kellar noted the account should reflect the $18,800 in road relocation funds.

Supervisors learned on notice from the bank depository, that two funds are overdrawn--Beat 1 road relocation by $700 and health and sick by $900.

To enable the $900 worth of health and sick checks to clear the bank, Kellar moved to lend $1,000 from his Beat 2 road and bridge fund, the amount to be repaid as funds become available.

The only way the board could figure out to handle the Beat 1 road relocation overdraft was to pay it from the beat's regular road and bridge fund, Kellar noted there is no more money coming in from the road relocation source as that work has

Plans for Bayou Caddy

Ask short route for Bayou Caddy

Tentative approval of the shorter, cheaper route of improving navigation on Bayou Caddy was given to the Mobile District, Army Corps of Engineers, by the board of supervisors last Thursday.

The two proposals, first announced last November and tabled until the new board of supervisors took office, were presented by Henry Lee and Charles Davis of the Corps' harbor development section. Several of the Bordages brothers, who operate a marina upstream on Bayou Caddy, assured the supervisors the shorter route would fulfill their needs and the board indicated it would be ready at its Feb. 5 session to answer the points needed by the Corps to start processing the project.

Lee said his office needed to know now if the board is interested in development of the bayou so it can prepare a report for division headquarters at Atlanta, he then will ask the county to guarantee its share of the cost--some $29,000 for the longer channel or $17,000 on the shorter route. If it then is approved and scheduled by the chief of the Corps, earliest starting date would be next fall. (Cont. on Page 5-A.)

LBJ asks $10,000 for erosion probe

A $95,000 hurricane protection and shoreline erosion study for Hancock County was given a provisional green light this week when President Lyndon Johnson included $10,000 for general investigation of the project in his budget.

Included in fiscal year 1969's allocations the money will become available in July if it is not trimmed from estimates.

Henry Lee, U.S. Corps of Engineers, harbor development section, engineer assigned to the project, and Jim Chamberlain, Corps information officer both of Mobile, said yesterday the study would take about three years to complete.

First step would be to call a public hearing to outline plans submitted to them by the flood and protection committee of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and other groups.

The Chamber committee, of Adm. E.F. Bayer, USN-ret, chairman, Col. Alfred McCaleb, USA-ret, Gen. John H. Cook, USMC-ret, and W. Wilson Webre, started work on the program two years ago and have presented their two plans in both Washington, D.C. and Mobile.

One plan calls for the construction of an "outer island" series of high tide water construction barriers and gates stretching from Gulfport to Point Clear, west of Bayou Caddy, and the other for construction of a levee stretching from the bottom of Washington Street across the Bay of St. Louis to Henderson Point. The levee would have two flood gates to permit tidal water flow and control and would be about 15 feet high.

In either case the end result sought is to lessen the amount of water amassing on the county's coastline in high hurricane type tides.

Under present financing arrangements it may be possible to get the federal government to pay all construction costs based on loss figures suffered by the county from hurricanes. Much of the area recently annexed by the City of Bay St. Louis and the Town of Waveland is of a low lying nature and is the only expansion land available. Much of this can be utilized for future construction if property owners were assured water would not rise over known and pre-determined heights.

Without any increase in taxes being envisaged the committee said that on an alternate scheme the government would pay 70 per cent of costs with the balance being split between Hancock and Harrison counties.

Jaycees cite boss

Jaycee boss of year title was awarded by Bay group at Saturday awards banquet to Dee Hamilton, president of Merchants Bank and Trust Co. Presentation was made by James Ginn, Jaycee president and Bay branch officer of Hancock Bank.

Hamilton top boss

Breland wins Jaycee DSA

"There's nothing wrong with this country that a few good elections wouldn't cure," Attorney-General Joe T. Patterson told a near capacity audience at the Bay Jaycees' annual awards dinner Saturday at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

During the evening, the Jaycees gave their distinguished service award for 1967 to William E. Breland, 31, and chose Dee Hamilton, Merchants Bank president, as boss of the year.

Breland was selected over a field of nine candidates by a panel of judges composed of Mrs. Wade Guide, Biloxi Civil defense director; Mitchell Saloum, Jr., Gulfport businessman; Ray Butterfield, WLOX-TV manager, and Milton Core, past president of the Louisiana Jaycees.

The DSA winner, nominated by the city of Bay St. Louis, was cited for his work in the city's civil defense for which he is a search and rescue division leader; as an auxiliary policeman, and director of United Fund. He has been active in First Baptist Church, St. Stanislaus Siding Club and various other organizations. His wife is the former Noelle Leshner and they have five children.

The award was presented by Bert Stiefel, last year's winner. Lights in the ballroom were dimmed and a spotlight focused on each nominee as he was introduced as his credentials read.

James Ginn, Jaycee president, awarded the boss of the year plaque to Hamilton. Jaycees themselves voted on this award.

The Mississippi attorney general cited Webster's Dictionary definition of politics as the art and science of government, noting often this is put in a bad scene. He urged persons to serve on juries, noting, "If good citizens are not willing to answer to jury duty and criminals are turned loose, who's fault is it?"

Patterson lauded Mississippians and law enforcement officers for their cool heads in the troubles last summer. Rather than hooded groups in the middle of the night, the only organization the state needs is the combined determination of the good people, he asserted.

J. Rubio Griffin, attorney who formerly served on Patterson's staff, introduced the speaker, Charles Carter, Jr., past state Jaycee president, who was master of ceremonies while Rev. William J. Kolloy of St. Augustine's presided over the opening and closing prayers.

Retain Baker, port asks

Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., consulting engineers from Jackson, are to be retained by the county port and harbor commission to complete projects currently underway on the first phase of the industrial park and the airport.

The decision to hire the engineers to complete projects underway subject to approval of the board of supervisors, was made Jan. 24 at a recessed session of the port group in Gulf National Bank Building.

The commission's two attorneys, Michael Haas and Gerald Cox, reported they had compared the new contract to the old and all seemed in order with the exception of one option clause. This dealt with preparation of a brochure type report on county industrial facilities available. Under the terms of the original contract the report for $2,000 and bill the commission for copies produced. The new contract lacked this option and was sent to the supervisors under the proviso that it be added.

The supervisors are also to receive a request asking for $1,100.00 for relief on 2,208 (Cont. on Page 3-A.)

Gallery grits teeth as big bang fizzes

Playing to a packed house, the Saturn V moon shot rocket second stage No. 4 blasted off at 5:22 p.m. Tuesday only to call it quits 18 seconds later at Mississippi Test Facility rocket stage proving ground.

The stage shut down due to a malfunction in the ground instrumentation system.

Mack Herring, public information officer, said yesterday indications are the rocket stage was performing properly at the time of shutdown.

"Firing took place after a successful seven hour and 12 minute countdown, he said. The firing, scheduled to last six minutes, will be re-run for next week.

Present as visitors at the shoot were 32 officials from New Orleans, consultants of various nations, students from Texas A & M, Louisiana State University, University of Southern Mississippi, Tulane University, 20 girls from Gulf Park College, and electronics students from Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, as well as civic dignitaries from various locations.

For the first time 20 guinea pigs were placed in several spots throughout the test site. Each was wired to supply reaction data to be used in measuring the effects of low frequency noises on life. Positioned by the research division of Tulane University the mammal's contribution will spearhead research of this type. All previous research has been in the nature of high frequency noise level reaction study.

Convert old theater for amusements

The old A and G Theater on the Beach at State Street is being converted into an amusement arcade.

Previously owned by Christ Episcopal Church, the building is being bought by Eddie L. Jones, Bay St. Louis attorney, for a reported $15,000.

Jones said Monday that he also anticipates new amusements and the amusement machines will arrive as soon as circumstances permit.

All the seats have been removed from the old movie house, the floor is being leveled and other repair work done.

The premises will be open for business in about two weeks, no firm date has yet been fixed, Jones said.

A permit covering structural alterations and conversion was issued by the city on Jan. 14. Harry Benjamin, city building inspector, said the building is sound and which permits its use as an amusement center.

Waveland Hills '67 to work

Waveland's volunteer firemen answered 123 calls in 1967, a dip from the previous year due to creation of the new Hancock volunteer unit. An annual summary, reported by Robert Lucas, president, showed 63 calls in the county, 54 in the county and in Bay St. Louis. Three false alarms, one three false alarms, one aid run to Pass Christian for mutual assistance call.

Most of their work was with fires--44 in Waveland, the county and two in Bay St. Louis. They handled 10 fires in the town, six county and three in Bay St. Louis. In addition Waveland has seven miscellaneous and one gas truck station blaze. Volunteers also handled two miscellaneous fires in the county in Bay St. Louis.

Officers of the unit, elected in December, were: Ed Fayard, president; Ed Fayard, vice president; Ed Fayard, chief; A.D. Dorn, assistant chief; and Gladys Dorn, secretary-treasurer. Also in safety and engineering officer.

Waveland volunteer firemen sold its old truck to a local business during the week ending Feb. 1, 1968, leaving Waveland with a 7000-gallon per minute truck.

Bay High girls win

Pirates pepper oppugnants

By H.E. Engolhom
Echo sports editor

"Wait 'til we get 'em in our own gym", a Hancock North Central Hawk was heard to say after losing by six points to Pass Christian, boys' division winner of the 32nd annual Bay High Invitational that ended Saturday night. He was speaking of the Gulf Coast Conference Tournament which started last night at HNC. Winners of the Bay High tourney were Bay High girls and Pass Christian boys.

As expected the Bay High and Pass Christian girls had little trouble advancing to the finals where coach Billy Sills' charges thumped the gals from across the lake for the fourth time this season, this time 35-30, and the Tigerettes are now rated the best girl team in District 8 -- best in the state by some.

Other results are: boys' final, Pass Christian 53, Poplarville 51; semi-finals, Poplarville 59, Bay High 48; Pass Christian 71, HNC 63; quarter-finals, Poplarville 55, Notre Dame 50; Bay High 60, Stone 25; HNC 87, St. Martin 40; Pass Christian 53, Harrison Central 50; opening round, Notre Dame 77, Long Beach 40; Bay High 50, St. Stanislaus 46; HNC 86, Pearl River Central 76; Pass Christian 70, Ocean Springs 45.

Girls, semi-finals, Pass Christian 44, Poplarville 39; Bay High 48, St. Martin 36; opening round, Pass Christian 58, HNC 32; Poplarville 33, Harrison Central 21; Bay High 50, Stone 25; St. Martin 39, Pearl River Central 28.

An interesting sidelight is that in the girls' bracket, all teams listed first won except for the finals.

The Bay High - St. Stanislaus fracas turned out just as expected except for the final score. It was a hotly contested, exciting game played before about 2,500 fans that had the Tigerdome swinging. Underdog Bay High out-fought and out-played the Rockchaws but with a little more time the result might have been reversed. It was a good, clean game and the leading scorer, Anthony Ladner, scored 25 points without committing a single foul.

We nick-named Pass Christian High's Forrest (Joe) Pavolini "The Amazing" and here is one reason. Harrison Central was giving the Pirates a pasting Friday night in the quarter-finals leading 12-6 after the first quarter, 38-32 at intermission and 38-32 with only a couple of seconds left in the third quarter when Pavolini reared back and hurled the ball from under his own goal straight into the opposite basket for two points as the horn sounded -- and the ball didn't even touch the rim. It went on record as an 87-foot shot and stunned the Red Robels so badly they never did recover and the Pirates won the game.

On their season records, North Central is second No. 1 and Pass Christian No. 4 with Long Beach and Stone being 2nd and 3rd. Defending champs are Bay High boys and Pass Christian girls but Bay High's super-girls should coast to the top in the distaff division this year.

Boys' bracket is: Wednesday, 8 p.m., HNC vs. Ocean Springs; 8:30 Long Beach vs. St. Martin; Thursday, 7:15 Stone vs. Harrison Central; 8:30 Pass Christian vs. Bay High; Semi-finals, 8:15 and 8:45 Friday; finals, 8:45 Saturday. Girls: Wednesday, 7:15, St. Martin vs. HNC; Thursday, 6, Harrison Central vs. Stone; Friday, semi-finals at 5 and 7:30; Saturday, finals at 7.

Actually, this tournament is more important to the players than the Bay High Invitational as the top teams move up to the sub-district and district tournaments, then the state south and north-south playoffs.

Coach Willie Bradley said Tuesday that the Tigers are playing better ball now than they have all season. Last Thursday at Poplarville, led by Ernest Taylor with 25 points, they broke a 27-27 halftime lead to defeat Poplarville 66-60 after the Tigerettes had captured the opener 26-17.

The Tigers got their fifth consecutive win Monday at Lucedale winning 87-80 with Taylor hitting for 29, Larry Peters 20 and Winston Whavers 15, but the Tigerettes suffered their second loss of the season losing to Lucedale 28-35. The junior varsity boys won the opener 47-41 with John Lee and Michael Lymul getting 15 and 11 points respectively.

VCJ wins 4 of 5 to clinch title

Valena C. Jones cagers won four out of five games during the last seven days and, as they move into the last quarter of the season, the Tigers have clinched the South Mississippi Athletic Conference south zone championship while the Tigerettes had to beat Pass Christian Wednesday for the girls' title.

Should the Tigerettes lose to Pass Christian, they will finish in a tie with Wiggins for the conference championship but will still be assured of a berth in the north-south zone playoffs as both winners and runners-up compete. The Tigerettes are 9-2 in conference play and 16-2 overall, the Tigers 8-3 and 11-7, four of the seven losses being by two points.

The north-south zone playoffs are slated for 10 a.m. Feb. 10 at Poplarville and it looks like a battle between Jones and Purvis for the boys' championship, the latter having already clinched the north title.

Coach Willie Bradley said Tuesday that the Tigers are playing better ball now than they have all season. Last Thursday at Poplarville, led by Ernest Taylor with 25 points, they broke a 27-27 halftime lead to defeat Poplarville 66-60 after the Tigerettes had captured the opener 26-17.

Egnew-Farve vows exchanged Sunday

The lady of the hour, Mrs. James C. Egnew, was the center of attention at the wedding of her son, James C. Egnew, Jr., to Miss Mary Louise Farve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Farve, Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the St. Louis Hotel.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, is employed at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The groom, a 1948 graduate of the University of Missouri, is a mechanical engineer at the University of Missouri.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Quinn, pastor of St. Joseph's Church.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were escorted to the reception at the St. Louis Hotel.

The bride's bridesmaids were Misses Mary Louise Farve, sister of the bride, and Misses Mary Louise Farve, sister of the bride.

The groom's best man was Mr. James C. Egnew, Jr., brother of the groom.

The wedding was a private affair with only family and close friends in attendance.

Lakeshore club cites garden of Mrs. Peterson

Mrs. Ben Peterson was awarded the Lakeshore Garden Club's garden prize for January, 1950, for the best garden in the city.

The prize was awarded to Mrs. Peterson for her excellent garden, which was judged to be one of the best in the city.

The garden club members praised Mrs. Peterson for her excellent taste and skill in gardening.

Mrs. Peterson's garden was a beautiful display of flowers and plants, and it was a pleasure for the club members to see it.

The garden club members hope to see Mrs. Peterson's garden again in the future.

Penny stamp sales rate sets new high

With six cent stamps selling at about the same rate as the old five centers, Bay St. Louis postal clerks got a check this month when heavy demand developed in one cent stamp sales.

Twice they had to call the Cincinnati, Ohio, stamp supply center, for emergency shipments when sales began running more than 10 times higher than normal.

J.R. Shadoin, assistant postmaster, last week estimated that more than 60,000 one cent stamps will be sold during January.

This is about the same sales ratio as elsewhere with most Postoffice reporting heavy sales of one cent stamps.

The stamp machine at Bay St. Louis has not yet been converted to handle new denominational demand. It awaits the attention of a maintenance man working out of Mobile, Ala. With the big change over in rates occurring last month some delay in conversions is anticipated.

When fixed the machines will dispense two, five cent stamps for a dime and four, six cent stamps and a penny change for a quarter.

Social club re-elects Dupont prexy

P.G. Dupont was re-elected president of Miller's Social Club on Friday at the group's annual general meeting.

Others elected were Pete Noto, vice president; L.E. Nicholson, chaplain; August Riche, parliamentarian; Mrs. Frances Miller, treasurer; Mrs. P.G. Dupont, secretary; Mrs. August Riche, gift chairman; Mrs. L.E. Nicholson, hospital visiting committee chairman; Louis Lakour, publicity chairman. Mrs. Louis Lakour and Gerald Price were named to the hospital committee.

The Miller's Social Club is now in its fourth year of operation. Its members list is drawn from an area around Shoreline Park and its meetings are held in the back of Miller's Store, US 90.

Kate and Roy Saur insist the forced entry into their place of business last weekend must have been some sort of mistake. Even though a rear door was torn from the frame, absolutely nothing was taken or even disturbed.

Note to a reader - We rarely answer anonymous letters, but must assure the gentleman who simply signed his note Not to Remember that the Bobo Carver referred to in our column is not the man he has in mind. Bobo Carver's three dogs have never been known to bother anyone, and they live in the Bay, so aren't breaking any ordinances.

Incidentally, Bobo is doing fine and is now residing in the county home, to answer many inquiries as to his welfare.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Two small boys trying vainly to fly kites upon the beach; eager beaver gardeners, pruning, clipping and raking each time the sun comes out; the fiery winter sunsets giving the appearance of a daily fire in the western sky and the frequent staccato of automobile horns as teenagers greet one another in a code all their very own.

we care

"a bit more"

is what makes our white bread better!

We're talking of course about Jane Parker White Bread

We use a bit more milk than we have to, to give you a richer loaf

We never use milk substitutes.

We use a bit more shortening than we have to, to give you a softer loaf... the way you like it.

We use a bit more sugar than we have to, to give Jane Parker more flavor

We use a baking process that produces a velvety-soft, silky-textured slice... free of holes.

We pack it fresh from the oven in a reusable plastic bag with a twist-tie for convenient reclosing.

We do one more thing that hardly anybody does.

We date our Jane Parker White Bread.

It's the only absolute guarantee of freshness you have... unless you bake your own.

And speaking of guarantees, we unconditionally guarantee you'll like it

So, you see, we really do do "a bit more."

Since Jane Parker Bread is sold only at A&P, shouldn't A&P be your store?

YOU CAN'T BUY BETTER! WHY PAY MORE?
